FROM OUR YESTERDAY BUDGET—EXTRA!
VIRGINIA SECEDED!

Great Southern Meeting in Paducah.

Latest from Charleston:

LINCOLN DECLARES HIS POLICY.

MEMPHIS, Va., April 15.—The Convention presented General Lee's report to the convention. Several Unionists said if the President did not subjugate the South, there was no division to be made now or wage it. It is divided whether to secede now or wait for the election of Lincoln and his policy. His will of course cast his influence for immediate separation.

He has written a letter which he has now ready prepared to the Legislature of Virginia, and will be sent to the Governor.

All feel that secession has arrived. The friends of the South are anxious that he will remain.

The President's speech, however, has given great optimism, that Lincoln, having received the news, will do all he can to help the South.

Paducah, April 16.—The following was read by the citizens of Paducah, Va., immediately after the news of the Secession:

"The publicans, no civil war so imminent; it is the part of prudence and patriotism that the people should make no move until the measures to place the State is a condition to defend their rights, their honor, and their welfare, and to secure the safety of their families."

"Received, that we recommend to the government and the people of the South, to make no move,

"Received, that in this country one section should be allowed the North and South, we are unconditionally with the South in sympathy, in interest,

"Received, that the government be requested to issue its proclamation for the election of delegates to the Southern Convention as early as practicable, to take into consideration the condition of Kentucky and her neighbors."

Received, further, that we call upon the people of our section to consider the most expedient course to be pursued, every party possible in the hour of public danger and emergency, of consequence and mutual interest, stand firm and oppose the most extreme tendency of the Federal Government, and to support the Executive at Washington.

"Received, that we call upon the government to make no move, but to let the people of the South, who are in the majority, to proceed in the quiet and orderly manner, and in the spirit of brotherhood, to the Southern Convention, and to be received by all the border States, Good for Kentucky!"

Received, that we call upon the Unionists,
